Webcast Agenda

I: Brief History of Adapted Physical Education Authorization

II: 2013 Program Standards

III: Advice for Existing Programs and Program Assessment Process

IV: New Program Sponsors and Initial Program Review

I: Adapted Physical Education Authorization

- ◆ The credential and the first set of standards were developed between 1977 and 1980
- ◆ Ed Code rewritten in 1980 to implement California's Master Plan for Special Education
- ◆ As of 9/1/80 teachers in APE setting required to hold the Emphasis Credential in Adapted Physical Education

Adapted Physical Education Added Authorization

The Adapted Physical Education (APE) authorization allows the holder to conduct assessments and teach special needs students who are precluded from participating in a general education physical education program.

See CIG for complete Authorization Statement:
http://www.ctc.ca.gov/credentials/cig2/cig\_toc.html

Adapted Physical Education Program Standards

- ◆ 1992 – APE Standards revised to include 32 Standards that were adopted by the Commission
- ◆ APE Emphasis and Specialist carry a limited authorization which requires a prerequisite credential for teaching physical education

2006 Special Education Panel Recommendations

Numerous reforms related to special education credential including changes to the Adapted Physical Education Credential

2009 – Four (4) Program Standards adopted by the Commission

2009 Adapted Physical Education Standards

- ◆ Standard 1: Characteristics of Students in Adapted Physical Education
- ◆ Standard 2: Motor Behavior as Applied to Adapted Physical Education
- ◆ Standard 3: Scientific Principles of Human Behavior
- ◆ Standard 4: Instructional Strategies and Adaptation

Concerns Related to 2009 Standards

- ◆ In 2012, concerns that 2009 standards might not ensure that candidates are sufficiently well-prepared were shared with Commission staff
- ◆ Fall 2012, a survey of APE stakeholders was conducted to elicit input from the field

2012 APE Survey

Survey questions:

- 1) How familiar are you with the 1992 – 2009 standards?
- 2) Is Language of proposed standards clear ?
- 3) Are concepts proposed important for a program to address?
